President Plans Series of Talks To Air Views

Faith in Free World To Be Stressed in Half-Dozen Speeches

NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower will go directly to the American people in a series of talks to proclaim anew his faith that the free world will prevail against communism in this outer space age.

The President's plans for perhaps half a dozen speeches in various sections of the country in the next few weeks were disclosed as he told a radio audience Tuesday night he intends to seek opportunities to set forth his views in these critical times.

Speaking before 1,500 applauding guests at a Waldorf-Astoria Hotel dinner sponsored by the National Fund for Medical Education, Eisenhower dealt mainly with a need for money to train more doctors and other medical personnel and to expand health facilities.

He said solemnly that he also had other problems on his mind, and that he plans to discuss them in the weeks ahead.

He put it this way against the background of Russia's progress in the satellite and the long-range ballistic missile fields:

"THEY INCLUDE the continuing endeavor of our people in the fields of scientific achievement and the methods for attaining even greater achievements, our responsibilities and our opportunities abroad, the strength of our domestic economy, the character and power of our defense programs, and the right of our people to confidence in these strengths."

The President said further: "If I may be able, in these talks, to set out in proper perspective the truth and the facts of these matters, no time consumed will be too much, no personal inconvenience too great."

The President provided no detail regarding his plans. But aides said he will make perhaps as many as half a dozen speeches, some of them outside of Washington. The first, most likely dealing with the nation's science programs, is expected soon.

The talks probably will continue into the early weeks of next year. The administration has been sharply criticized by some members of Congress who feel the satellite and missile programs have not been pushed vigorously.

EISENHOWER's plans to speak out underscore his determination, aides said, to reiterate his stated belief that the free world can outdo the world of communism.

Without saying so in so many words, Eisenhower indicated he intends to put great emphasis on the domestic economy — at this time of slumping stock market prices.

Tuesday night he said: "We must cast aside any morbid pessimism about the capacity of our private enterprise system to generate and maintain high levels of employment, production and incomes."

Continuing Jobless List Up in Ohio

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio's total of jobless benefit claims a week or more old jumped to 53,325 last week, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reports. This was an increase from 51,946 the previous week.

New claims last week numbered 11,007, a drop of 211 from new claims the previous week.

The total of continuing claims does not necessarily indicate the total number of unemployed workers covered by the jobless benefit law. A number of unemployed have exhausted their benefits and have been dropped from the rolls.

Macmillan Sets Talks With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan came here today to appeal to President Eisenhower for restoration of the American-British partnership in scientific research. His purpose is to "improve friendship and extend cooperation" between the two countries.

Greatly expanded scientific cooperation between Britain and the United States would require a presidential proposal to Congress to modify the basic law governing release of atomic weapons secrets. Some of the President's advisers see this as a serious obstacle, because they are not sure what the temper of Congress will be when it returns in January.

Secretary of State Dulles declared the three-day Eisenhower Macmillan talks were not just aimed at strengthening American-British ties. Their broad purpose, he said, is to "help all nations which need to cooperate and work together to wage peace successfully."

Macmillan also referred to the interest of other friendly countries in telling Dulles his talks with Eisenhower would have "only one purpose — to improve our friendship and extend cooperation between our two countries in all fields, and they are many, in which we work together with our allies and friends."

Macmillan did not mention it but the two developments which clearly lay behind "the decision to meet with Eisenhower were Russia's firing of intercontinental missiles, as announced last month, and the launching of the Sputnik satellite early this month.

MACMILLAN's first scheduled meeting with Eisenhower was set for 6 p.m. but it was expected he actually would go to the White House for an opening session in mid-afternoon.

The quickly arranged conference is dominated by the problem the Western powers now have in overtaking Russia's apparent lead in long-range missile development, as dramatized by the Soviet launching three weeks ago of the first man-made satellite.

Diplomatic authorities said there was no doubt that Macmillan and the British government generally feel that the best way to recover lost ground is to pool the scientific resources, including the brain power, of both Britain and the United States.

Eisenhower has spoken of employing the North Atlantic Treaty

Organization as something other than a military alliance. This suggests that he has in mind a NATO pool of scientific resources. Other administration officials reported he was planning along that line.

The President and Prime Minister, according to American sources, expect to discuss a wide range of other problems, particularly the prolonged crisis in the Middle East.

Qualified officials were not sure whether any new Middle East initiative on the part of the United States or Britain would come out of the talks. They did expect some further evidence of determination on the part of both governments to resist Soviet gain in the area.

U.N. Postpones Syria Debate

Assembly Lets Saud Try at Mediation

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U.N. Assembly's debate on the Syrian-Turkish crisis went into a cooling-off period today to await results of King Saud's try at mediation.

There still was no indication from Damascus, however, that the Syrian regime would send representatives to Saudi Arabia to negotiate with the monarch and the Turks on the latest threat to peace in the Middle East.

Turkey dispatched Minister of State Fatim Rustu Zorlu and two aides to Saudi Arabia Tuesday. There was speculation in Ankara, the Turkish capital, that Saud would propose at least a token withdrawal of troop reinforcements which Turkey sent to the Syrian border after pro-Soviet army officers took control in Syria.

Syria grudgingly proposed a three-day suspension of the U.N. debate, until Friday, to block a U.S.-backed Paraguayan proposal to hold up discussion indefinitely. The 82-nation assembly approved the Syrian amendment 37-10 with 34 abstentions.

The Syrians had declared an hour earlier in the Assembly that mediation was being urged only to confuse the Assembly and demanded that debate start at once.

Despite vigorous denunciations by Syria and Russia, the move for delay gained quick headway among delegates after U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge welcomed Saud's efforts. He appealed to Syria to match Turkey's good faith by agreeing to take part in the talks.

The American call for mediation was quickly echoed by Afghanistan, Paraguay and in effect even by Egypt, Syria's closest Arab ally.

Lodge hailed King Saud as a great leader and urged that his efforts to attain peace be given a chance.

Woman Driver Fined, Jailed By Muny Judge

Second Driving Under Influence Accusation Brings $400 Fine

Wilma Smith, 31, Route 1, Lockbourne, arrested here twice within two weeks for driving under the influence of intoxicants, received a heavy penalty today in Circleville Municipal Court.

Judge Walter M. Shea fined Mrs. Smith $400 and costs and sentenced her to 19 days in jail. Part of the fine and jail term was the result of her breaking probation on the first intoxicated driving accusation, heard here October 7.

Judge Shea vacated a one year probation and imposed a $100 fine and seven days in jail on the first offense. The accused woman was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail and had her driver's license suspended for one year on the second intoxicated driving count.

She also was fined $100 and costs and given a two-day jail term for driving while her license was under suspension. Judge Shea ordered the days in jail to run consecutively.

MRS. SMITH was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff.

Walter B. Griffith, 44, Route 4, Circleville, also appeared for driving under the influence. He was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to 10 days in jail and had his driver's license suspended subject to state law. Judge Shea suspended $100 of the fine and seven days of the jail term.

Arrested by city police Griffith also was fined $10 and costs for no operator's license.

William H. Davis, 19, Route 4, Circleville, was fined $10 and costs for failure to yield the right of way to through traffic and $10 and costs for insufficient brakes. He was arrested by police.

Robert Lyon, 51, Short Hills, N. J., was cited by police for passing a red light. He was fined $10 and costs.

Police arrested William Grey, 34, Columbus, for making a right was fined $10.

Drivers arrested by the State Highway Patrol were:

Clyde W. Neff, 48, Route 3, Mt. Sterling; $25 and costs for operating an overloaded vehicle.

Lyle Reiten, 39, Columbus; $20 and costs for speeding at 70 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

William J. Jaekels, 32, Washington C. H.; $15 and costs for speeding at 75 miles per hour.

Edna Steele was fined $10 and costs for failure to yield the right of way. She was arrested by the sheriff's department.

Take Embassy Refuge

HAVANA (AP) — Raul Chibas and Roberto Agromonte Jr., leaders of the opposition Orthodox party, reportedly took refuge Tuesday night in the Argentine Embassy.

Informed sources said the two opponents of President Fulgencio Batista fled to the embassy after an emergency court released them from charges of subversion.

AFGHAN VISITS REDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said today the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee has received "perfectly plain evidence of collusion" between the Morton Frozen Foods Co. and the Bakery Workers Union.

He made the statement in questioning James G. Cross, president of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union, who denied any personal participation in the organization of workers at the Morton company plant in Webster City, Iowa.

Cross denied that he had any conversations with Nathan Shefferman of Chicago, whose Labor Relations Associates aided in the organization. Shefferman is a friend of Dave Beck, retiring president of the Teamsters Union.

Representatives of the Shefferman organization had sparked a drive that defeated organization

FLYING FINNS "ARREST" JUDGE — The flying Finn twins of Los Angeles, who have been fighting the courts for possession of a war surplus plane for three years, made another "citizen's arrest" by pouncing on Superior Judge Kenneth Chantry (right) and handcuffing him to a guard rail on City hall steps. The brothers, George (left) and Charles, watch a police officer opening the cuffs. They said they were "arresting" the judge on charges of fraud, theft and conspiracy to deprive them of their property — the plane.

Intermediate Range Rocket Fired Successfully by Army

MISSILE TEST CENTER, Cape Canaveral, Fla. (AP) — A Jupiter rocket soared skyward Tuesday night in a spectacular and successful test of the Army's intermediate range ballistic missile.

The missile, designed to travel 1,500 miles, was reported officially to have taken its prescribed course and landed in its pre-selected target area. It was the first time the Defense Department had identified a missile fired from here or had given an immediate report on the outcome of a test.

The Pentagon, however, would not reveal how far the Jupiter had traveled. A spokesman said that still is secret information.

The mighty missile trailed a long oval flame which lighted up the Cape Canaveral area. Minutes after the launching the Miami Herald, 200 miles to the south, was flooded with calls from residents who said they saw it pass overhead.

There still was no word on when the scheduled test of the Navy's Vanguard missile will take place.

THE THREE-STAGE rocket, intended to carry a U. S. earth satellite into space, is due for a try-out of its first-stage engine. High winds apparently have caused postponements of the test.

Tuesday's Jupiter test was the second of the day. A small missile was launched during daylight hours but authorities have declined to give any information about it beyond that it was not the Vanguard. It began wobbling shortly after takeoff and apparently fell into the Atlantic.

As the huge Jupiter was about to be launched, searchlights shone brightly on it and a glow appeared around it.

Seconds later it began a slow ascent, gathered speed, vanished momentarily in a cloud bank, then reappeared. It could be seen for about 2½ minutes before it disappeared to the southeast.

In Washington, Defense Department officials indicated more information about missile tests and their results will be provided in the future. Murray Snyder, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, said the missile test program here "has reached a stage where certain information may now be made public."

CITY MANAGER SETUP OK'd by Toledo Group

TOLEDO (AP) — The executive committee of the Toledo Chamber of Commerce voted Tuesday to support continuation of the city manager form of government in Toledo.

The Chamber said it took a poll in which its members indicated they favored the city manager government 20-1. In the November election, voters will ballot on a proposal to amend the city charter to provide a strong mayor form of government.

Prober Sees Plain Collusion Between Firm, Bakery Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said today the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee has received "perfectly plain evidence of collusion" between the Morton Frozen Foods Co. and the Bakery Workers Union.

Several witnesses, including one from management, said that this contract was less favorable than any which the packinghouse union would have demanded if it had been successful in organizing the Webster City plant.

They said that workers at the plant were not consulted in the negotiations between Morton management and the Bakery Workers Union.

"It is perfectly apparent from the evidence," McClellan said today, "that the management knew and I think arranged" for the Shefferman organization to combat the packers drive, then back the bakers union. Shefferman specializes

605 City Pupils Absent Today

Circleville schools will be closed tomorrow because of the outbreak of virulent flu.

Superintendent of city schools George Hartman made the announcement today after noon attendance figures revealed that 605 students were absent from classes.

The absences totaled nearly 24 per cent of the 2531 students enrolled in the city schools. Absentee figures jumped by 141 over yesterday when 464 students were out of school. Absences Monday had totaled 472.

City schools reported the following absentee figures:

Court St., 55; Walnut St., 50; Atwater, 7; High St., 47; Corwin, 156; Franklin-Mound, 77; and the high school, 150.

Ten Circleville teachers were absent from school today, according to Superintendent George Hartman.

Another casualty of the flu epidemic was Circleville's scheduled football game Friday night at the

Greenfield

Cancels Grid Game Friday

The Circleville-Greenfield football game scheduled Friday night on the local gridiron has been postponed because of flu.

CHS coach Tom Bennett today said Greenfield officials requested the postponement due to heavy absence. The school was closed most of last week and again this week.

Coach Bennett said the Tigers possibly may pick up another game for Friday if the flu bug does not hit too hard here. The game with Holy Rosary was canceled last week when several local gridirers were confined to bed.

Several of the players were back at practice this week but were unable to operate at full speed.

As yet no definite plans have been made concerning the league test with Greenfield. According to CHS officials a decision on whether or not the game will be played will be made when Greenfield opens classes again.

The game was slated as homecoming for Circleville.

Flu Bug Losing Its Punch In Ohio Cities Already Hit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The flu bug seems to be losing its punch in cities already hit, but it's finding other victims—a lot of them—in areas that up to now have been healthy.

Last week, Cincinnati was hard hit by influenza. This week, absenteeism there is declining. Toledo also reported absenteeism declining.

Elsewhere, the flu seems to be gaining ground.

Three schools were closed in Wyandot County, two in Carey and one in McCutchenville. The Bellevue - Upper Sandusky high school football game scheduled for Thursday night was postponed.

The entire Cambridge public school system closed down at noon today with teacher absenteeism at 16 per cent and the substitut

Daytonian Gets Bomb Call, Finds Home Gas-Filled

DAYTON (AP) — A Dayton woman who stayed away from home all night because of a telephoned bomb threat returned to her house this morning and found all the gas jets open—and the pilot light out.

Mrs. Charles Sweet, 40, who lives alone, was placed under the protection of sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Sweet reported to the sheriff's office Tuesday night that a voice on the telephone warned her: "There's a bomb planted in your house."

Deputies searched, found nothing, but advised her to spend the night with friends. She found the house filled with gas today.

IN SCIOTO County, 11 more schools were closed today. New Boston schools remained closed. The county's Northwestern School District closed its three high schools and five grade schools.

In southwestern Ohio, schools in the Butler County communities of Seven Mile, Morgan and Ross closed Tuesday and Clinton County school officials shut schools at New Antioch and Blanchester because of absenteeism.

In Hamilton, schools reported 700 more students absent Monday than were away from class Friday.

In Clermont County, 15 schools closed Monday for the remainder of the week.

The Ohio Department of Health reported 653 new cases of influenza last week, bringing the year's total thus far to 1,294. The number of confirmed Asian flu cases now stands at 43, the department said.

Sensenbrenner Doesn't Wait For Dem Chiefs

Columbus Mayor Out For Governor Without Party's 'Screening'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Mayor Maynard E. Sensenbrenner of Columbus got the jump on Democratic state headquarters in announcing he would run for governor next year.

Without waiting for appointment of a candidate "screening committee" by William L. Coleman, Democratic state chairman, Sensenbrenner obtained nominating petitions Tuesday.

That made him the first in either party to take out petitions for elective state office.

Coleman said earlier he expected to announce membership of a screening committee this week-end. The 12-member group, Coleman explained, will make sure that a complete slate of well-qualified candidates takes the field against Republican office holders expected to seek reelection.

Coleman emphasized that the committee would seek to expand rather than limit the number of Democratic aspirants for the primaries in order to get the strongest candidates available for run-off elections a year from November.

"I took out the petitions to announce for governor," Sensenbrenner said. "They talk about a screening committee. Anybody is entitled to run. I did it at the request of people all over Ohio. Now I'll find out how many people want Sensenbrenner."

The 55-year-old native of Circleville has been making speeches and public appearances throughout Ohio since he became mayor on Jan. 1, 1954, to fill an unexpired term. He was reelected in 1955 to a full four-year term. He spoke in Cambridge, Elyria and Fremont last week and will appear in Mansfield Thursday.

He worked for the state Civil Service Commission for 19 years and operated an office supply business on Columbus' Westside before becoming mayor.

In contrast to Republican state office holders who expect little if any primary opposition, Sensenbrenner can expect competition for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Prospective party candidates include: Former U.S. Sen. Thomas A. Burke, Cuyahoga County Engineer Albert S. Porter and Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze, all of Cleveland; former state Supreme Court Judge Robert N. Gorman of Cincinnati; Murray D. Lincoln of Columbus and Mayor Frank X. Kryzan of Youngstown.

Coleman intimated that a previously well regarded prospect for governor would head the screening committee instead of running for that office.

Some of those mentioned for committee membership were Lockwood Thompson, Cyrus Eaton and State Sen. Joseph W. Bartunek, all of Cleveland; Rep. Frances McGovern of Akron, John Kelley of Toledo, John Wiethe of Cincinnati, George D. Nye of Waverly, A. B. Flask of Youngstown and Helen Gunsett of Van Wert.

Coleman declined to confirm or amplify the list in advance of his weekend announcement.

Associates of the Marysville attorney-farmer said his efforts to revive an effective statewide Democratic organization are showing results.

He is concentrating on a two-pronged attack to shake the Republican grip on state and congressional posts.

One part is a "Dollars for Democrats" drive to raise funds for campaigns on national, state and

Pollution Expert Seeks Cause for Killing of Fish

CINCINNATI (AP)—A pollution expert says he thinks investigators will know in a few days the source of poisoning that killed thousands of fish in the Great Miami River last weekend.

Paul Shafer, chief of pollution control for the Ohio Division of Wildlife, said Tuesday that the pollution was apparently industrial wastes in two doses: One above Hamilton Dam and one below Hamilton.

He said that for about 30 miles downriver, bass, catfish and carp died.

He said: "The fish were going berserk. I saw one bass jump five feet out of the water trying to get away from the substance, whatever it was."

Shafer said probbers are testing to learn the nature of the substance and are checking the number of fish killed because the state will probably seek damages in court.

local levels. The other envisions an Ohio Democratic Club of 100,000 members paying annual "dues" of from $2 to $100.

With a club of that size, Coleman claims, "we can get the information to voters which will put us in the win column in 1958." The present count runs between 8,000 and 9,000 members, he estimated.

Coleman reported that so far 53 county chairmen have agreed to participate in the "Dollars for Democrats" drive and that others will join up. He said that contrasted with participation by only 19 a year ago and shows reviving interest.

Coleman termed next year's elections "the most important to us that have ever been held in Ohio."

Major importance is attached to the elections because state officials chosen next year will serve for four years for the first time. They now serve for two years. Republicans hold all elective state administrative posts.

Also at stake will be the six-year term of U.S. Sen. John W. who is expected to seek reelection.

Prospective Democratic opponents of Bricker include Stephen M. Young of Cleveland, former congressman, and Dr. William E. Stevenson, president of Oberlin College.

Ohio's junior senator is Democrat Frank J. Lausche, former five-term governor and often mentioned as a presidential prospect. His term runs to 1962.

Titular head of the Democratic Party in Ohio is Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, unsuccessful candidate for governor last year. Although DiSalle has indicated that business interests would prevent him from running again next year, party leaders assert he might be induced to change his mind.

Mentioned as Democratic prospects for lieutenant governor are Robert L. Moulton of Gallion, former Public Utilities Commission chairman, and Charles R. Koch, Van Wert, of the state liquor board.

Other likely prospects include: Secretary of state, Mrs. Mary Gorman of Cincinnati, wife of former Judge Gorman; treasurer, John W. Donahy of Hudson, former unsuccessful candidate for that office, and state Rep. Arthur H. Millson of Freeport, Harrison County; attorney general, John E. Halliday of Gallipolis, member of the Ohio Wildlife Council.

The state auditor's office, already a four-year term, is not at issue in next year's election.

The World Today

By ED CREAHER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth probably didn't notice it on her trip through New York's financial district the other day, but Wall Street was having one of its every-now-and-then nervous breakdowns.

The hired help were happily showering ticker tape on Her Majesty but their bosses were selling stock. They still are—though a good many are buying it also. While the Queen was passing by, something like five billion dollars in stock value was going out the window like so much ticker tape. And the next day the market hit its lowest average in more than 2½ years.

Nobody is blaming the Queen for any of this. She just happened to be riding past when it was happening. Most Americans were watching her, or the pictures of her, instead of that complicated big board in the stock exchange. Quite naturally. She's much prettier. And the board was a sad sight by anybody's reckoning that day.

But now that all the paper streamers have been swept up, the word is about that the market has sagged. This means that any stock you own probably is worth less today than it was at the beginning of that mournful Monday in the money mart. What it means in terms of the national economy is something the experts are debating.

There seems no reason to press the panic button, however. The stock market is notoriously neu-

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:

• Brain Waves

Material in MEDICAL MIRROR is based on various scientific publications and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors.

The Diagnosis and treatment of disease requires the skill and knowledge which only a physician can apply by personally attending the patient.

Q. Do Doctors know what happens in the brain when people lose their mind?

A. In some cases they do but in others the trouble is hard to locate. Mental disease is the number one problem today and much work is being done in trying to solve the mysteries of brain function. Day and night the brain gives off telltale electrical impulses. By recording these brain waves, doctors are better able to diagnose certain brain disorders. Brain waves are usually picked up by tapping little wires to different places on the scalp. Mayo Clinic doctors have obtained clearer "pictures" of brain waves by using tiny pickup wires that are inserted into the brain through small holes in the skull. Deep probing of the brain is certainly not an everyday affair, even at Mayo Clinic. Fewer than 100 people have "probably been

Ohio Hereford Bulls Collect Top Prizes

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An Ohio couple's entries won the championship and reserve championship for Polled Hereford bulls at the American Royal Livestock show.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Knowlton of Bellefontaine, Ohio, captured the top award in the breed with Cek Zato Mischief. Their reserve champion is Cek Royal Domino, frequently a winner at various stock shows and valued by the Knowltons at $50,000.

Nobody is safe to say, sees any likelihood of a real depression. But many an official wishes he knew just what event, what mood or what expectations led to the stock market slump.

Hardly anybody in the Eisenhower administration is using that awful word "recession," and the tendency is to discount the stock price break as a thermometer of the economy. But of course the market's unsteadiness is being watched carefully in a dozen government agencies—as are employment figures (a bit below normal) and the other symptoms of economic health or illness.

What is the administration doing about the economy? Not much at the moment, beyond pulse-feeling. The general attitude is that the trouble spots will iron themselves out. Or, if they don't, that

Delinquent Tax Law Author Dies

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Funeral services will be held Thursday in the First Presbyterian Church for Frank E. Whittemore, 87, who as a state legislator fathered Ohio's installment plan for delinquent tax payment.

Whittemore died Tuesday at Summit County Receiving Hospital in Cuyahoga Falls. He retired from politics in 1949 after his defeat for re-election to the state Senate. He was active in Republican politics for 40 years.

During the Depression he authored the Whittemore Act, which provides for 10-payment installments on delinquent taxes. The law is credited with enabling thousands to save their homes.

No Cause for Fear or Panic

It is probable that more of us here in Pickaway County have heard as much about the Asian flu as any other subject in general conversation.

According to reports it is generally expected that this disease is reaching epidemic proportions this fall, but we have been told repeatedly by medical authorities that there is no cause for wild fears or panic.

For some reason, however, the vast amount of publicity from many sources has been given to this flu, has caused a lot of apprehension all over the country.

The illness, according to best information obtainable, is of short duration, is generally mild, has few complications, and has a very low mortality rate. A reportedly effective vaccine (regarded as safe except for patients with a known allergy to eggs) has been developed and the supply will gradually be increased.

In this connection, the American Medical Association, is asking for the cooperation of American business and industry. If the epidemic reaches major proportions business firms will experience a marked increase in absenteeism. Even so, the AMA emphasizes, industry should not get panicky and rush into a program of mass inoculation for its employees until essential priority groups in the community have been inoculated, or at least, had the opportunity to obtain such shots.

As was pointed out in a public statement here by the Pickaway County Health department, first priority on available vaccine should go to those persons vital to the community — such as health, police, fire, communications, transportation, and utility personnel—and to those who, in the opinion of physicians, constitute a special medical risk.

Individual physicians everywhere are urged to adhere to local priority systems, which may vary from place to place for one valid reason or another.

As for those who get Asian flu, the AMA points out that there is no specific treatment. Bed rest and fluids are necessary. All patients should be isolated so far as it is convenient. During the acute stage of the disease, the patient should not be allowed visitors.

Stearn Statement Pitiabie

By George Sokolsky

Martha Dodd Stern and Alfred Stern are fugitives from justice, who refuse to appear before an American court although they are accused of espionage. From Prague, to which they escaped from Mexico, they issued a long statement, surely too long for this column, in which they protest their treatment and denounce the accusations against them.

In my younger years, I met Martha Dodd and found her an enchanting young lady. But it was limited to only one meeting; her husband I do not know. Their story is not an unusual one for the 1930's when wealth and position set out to save the world by the route of Stalinist Communism, a brutal device. Martha Dodd's father had been an ambassador to Germany. Alfred Stern possesses means.

The Sterns' statement begins with the usual first paragraph of such documents:

"In the last weeks many newspapers, television, and the radio have given full coverage to a campaign of character assassination, a barrage of scurrilous propaganda against us. We therefore challenge the same press, television, and radio in the spirit of American 'fair play' to publish and issue this statement in full."

Flu Symptoms Easy To See

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

With all the recent talk about influenza, I think it's a good time for you to learn a little bit more about what this disease is and how it acts.

Influenza, or the "flu" or "grippe," is an infectious disease caused by one of three known principal types of influenza virus called Type A, Type B and Type C. Scientists now believe there may be a fourth, Type D.

There are many strains within each major classification. Oriental or Asiatic Influenza is believed to be caused by a group of viruses. Influenza most often strikes healthy young adults. Fortunately, these persons are generally strong enough to fight off the attack without too much trouble. When children or elderly persons are stricken, however, the danger of complications is greater.

It's rather difficult to avoid the disease because it is so easily spread. Persons who are immune to it can transmit the villainous virus by coughing or sneezing.

Symptoms of influenza are easy to recognize. But by the time they begin, there's not much you can do about alleviating them. Generally, you will develop a fever ranging from 101 to 103 degrees, you'll feel weak, have chills, and a severe pain in the head and back. You may feel very nauseated and vomit. You are apt to have a cough, sneeze a great deal and become hoarse.

Usually, after a few days in bed and isolated from the other members of your family, you'll be up and around again, but probably feeling weak. The disease most often runs its course in three or four days.

You should call your doctor, of course. While there isn't a great deal he can do to cure your influenza, he can prescribe antibiotics or sulfa drugs if he suspects there might be complications such as pneumonia.

We have developed vaccines to give at least short-term protection from most strains of influenza virus. But, at best, these vaccines provide immunity only for eight to twelve months.

R. W.: Will drinking hard water cause kidney stones?

Answer: Hard water may not cause kidney stones, directly. However, if a person has a tendency to form them, the high calcium content of hard water may be instrumental in producing them.

American scientists disagree over how long the sputnik will keep going. All they're sure of is, when it does fizzle, that will not be the last they'll hear of it.

Congress is pretty wrought up about Russia beating the U. S. with its earth satellite. They voted all that money, and its Russia that's having a ball.

Most scientists say the Russian satellite does not in itself constitute a weapon. So we have nothing to sphere but sphere itself.

The Russians are showing up very well these days. They claim superiority in about every field but Jayne Mansfield's.

The current saber-rattling just goes to show how touchy the world is. All of outer space to conquer, and Russia and the U. S. are in a stew over a little marginal real estate.

Grandma Dietrich--No Secrets

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (P)—America today is full of glamorous grandmothers, but Marlene Dietrich, one of the most beautiful, probably has the fewest beauty secrets.

"I wash my face with soap," she admitted cheerfully, "and I don't own a jar of skin cream. I keep only one bottle of perfume."

Miss Dietrich could probably wash her face in sawdust and still get by. She remains as faultlessly lovely as ever. Whatever she had, she still has.

Glamour is her trade mark, but never has impressed her very much.

The biggest misconception about glamour is that you cannot be glamorous and also clean house, wash dishes—and do everything anyone else does.

"What defeats most women who seek to be glamorous? In America I would say it is insecurity in their own judgment."

"They become too regimented. To feel they are well-dressed they must have the assurance of others; they must have the seal of approval to be sure they haven't made a mistake.

"But that is where they make their mistake. Their own individuality cannot come through if they follow a pattern, yet they must follow a pattern to feel secure."

Miss Dietrich, who recently completed "A Witness For The WELLINGTON, Tex. (P)—Doctors say examination indicates the Estrada Siamese twins can be safely separated.

The 4-day-old infant girls are joined at the chest and abdomen but Dr. Dale Watkins said they have separate digestive systems. He said tests also indicate "pretty positively" that the circulatory systems are separate.

The twins, Guadalupe and Ragué, were born Saturday to Mrs. Lina Estrada, 38, an itinerant farm worker of Donna, Tex.

Prosecution," usually makes one picture a year now, does four weeks in Las Vegas, has no ambitions to storm the battlements of television.

"Why should I?" she asked. "I am not trying to prove anything."

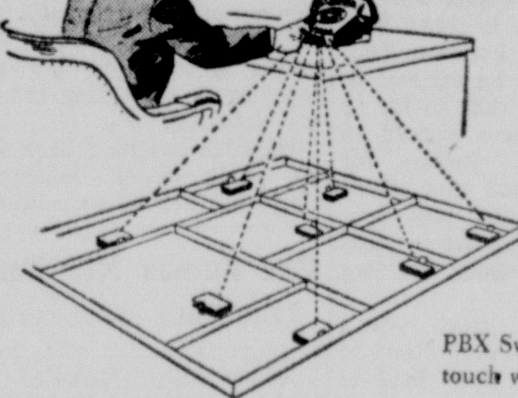

She lives simply. When she isn't working, she likes to attend concerts and Broadway openings. The rest of the time she spends reading (two to three books a week) and caring for her three young grandchildren.

"There is so much you want to do for children, and so very little you actually can do," she said. "You can watch their health and equip them with some basic ideas you believe in. You can refrain from giving them candy."

"As for the rest of it, they'll do what they want to anyway." Asked if she could sum up her philosophy in a sentence, Marlene shrugged wryly with her mouth, then said:

"Do your duty, but do it every day."

Pickaway County 12th in Income

Pickaway County ranks 12th in cash receipts from sale of agriculture products in Ohio in 1956.

In figures just released, Pickaway County ranks 12th from sale of agriculture products in relation to all 88 Ohio Counties in 1956.

These figures are compiled by the Ohio State University Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Departments and the Ohio Agriculture Experiment Station.

Cash receipts from agriculture sales in Pickaway County in 1956 amounted to $16,504,700. This compared to a figure of $15,250,000 in 1955. Pickaway County ranked 12th in the state in 1955 also. In 1953 Pickaway County ranked 7th in the state. This difference can partially be attributed to the higher price of hogs in 1953. In 1957 we may expect to rank higher, since we have had somewhat better hog prices in 1957.

Hog and cattle prices effect the agriculture sales more than any other items since they rank highest in number of farms involved.

THE 1956 figure of $16,504,700 from agriculture sales was made by hogs with 28 per cent, corn 18 per cent, beef cattle 17 per cent, dairy 10 per cent, wheat 10 per cent, poultry 7 per cent, soybeans 4 per cent, truck 3 per cent, and 3 per cent from other sources.

The 28 per cent for hogs in agriculture sales in 1956 is the lowest hogs have been since 1950. This is in direct relation to hog prices. Hog prices were the lowest since 1950.

Let's All Go Shopping!

By MRS. LEORA SAYRE

The servants of modern ghosts and witches should be making definite shopping plans to help carry on, in part, an ancient festival — once a medieval celebration of All Souls' Day.

Long ago, with much feasting and singing, little "soul cakes" were collected from house to house to appease the ghosts that walked on the Hallowed Evening. Today, the tradition has become a little confused with youthful ghosts ringing doorbells for tricks and treats.

The American Institute of Baking suggests Ghost Bait 'Burgers' as the best trick to treat big, as well as little 'spirits'.

These 'burgers' with their hilarious faces, can be exciting to make.

Combine 1/2 lb. ground beef, 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion, one-third cup of tomato paste, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and 1/4 teaspoon oregano. Spread 2 tablespoons pizza mixture over the cut side of bun halves. Place buns on a cookie sheet and brown in a hot oven (400 F.) for 12 minutes. Cut the faces from cheese slices using tiny cutters or a paring knife. Place a cheese face over the browned meat. Return to oven for one or two minutes, until cheese faces start to soften. (Makes 1 doz. Ghost 'Burgers'.)

SINCE HALLOWEEN time more-or-less officially marks the traditional opening of pumpkin season, good ghost bait would be products made from pumpkin — a member of the gourd family.

Pie seems to be first and most important of edible pumpkin preparations. There are endless formulas for varying the pie itself as well as the topping—if there is a felt need for the added calories.

Here are a few tips for tops to add the exciting of caloric touch to that pie:

(1.) Orange Cheese: (1 cup) Beat 6 oz. cream cheese very light with 1/4 cup confectioners sugar. Add 2 teaspoon orange rind and 3 tablespoons juice.

(2.) Chocolate Velvet: (1 cup) Combine 3 oz. cream cheese, 1/4 cup sour cream, 1 cup confectioners sugar, 1 oz. melted unsweetened chocolate, and 1/2 t. cinnamon.

(3.) Sherry Butter: (1 1/2 cup) Combine 1/4 cup melted butter, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons water and cook until blended—stirring constantly. Add 1 Tablespoon each of lemon juice and grated rind, dash nutmeg, and 1/4 cup Sherry.

(4.) Peanut Brittle: (1 1/2 cup) Whip 1/2 cup heavy cream, 1 t. confectioners sugar and 1/4 teaspoon vanilla until very thick. Fold in 1/2 cup crushed peanut brittle and allow to stand about an hour before topping the pie.

Barbecue beef and lamb will be a main attraction at the Pickaway County achievement meeting on Saturday. 4-H members, their parents and advisors are honored each year at this event signifying the conclusion of a year of 4-H meetings, demonstrations, exhibits and display of projects.

Do you know pumpkins by such titles as—Winter Luxury, Big Cheese, Sweet Sugar, Connecticut Field?

If you are interested in producing a record pumpkin for a future showing you might try this recommendation of a Pennsylvania farmer: "After your pumpkins are almost matured pull up the roots of the vine and place in a tub of fresh cow's milk and keep the roots covered." (Anywhere—Milk is one of the most perfect foods, and could be equally effective with big "gourds" as well as humans!)

If stored in a dry place, separated from one another, and wiped off occasionally with a dry cloth, pumpkins will keep for a year or more.

Ike's Brother Unaware of Visit

NEW YORK (AP)—A Tacoma, Wash., lawyer was stopped by a secret service agent Tuesday as he left an elevator on the 28th floor of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

President and Mrs. Eisenhower were lodged in a suite on the floor.

"What's your name?" the agent asked the lawyer.

"Eisenhower," the lawyer answered.

James C. Hagerty, the President's press secretary, whirled about and said, "Hello, Edgar, I didn't know you were in town."

The President's brother told Hagerty he was in New York on private business, unaware until Tuesday that the President would be in the city.

Fertilize Your Grasses Now, Says Hamrick

Now is a good time to fertilize your lawn, according to George Hamrick, Pickaway County Agricultural Agent.

Feed your lawn this fall and you will put it in good condition for winter, he says.

Any complete fertilizer will do, and you may apply it at any time within the next few weeks, but do it as soon as possible if the ground is moist. Good lawn feeding promotes deeper, more penetrating roots that enable grass to draw on a larger volume of soil moisture, helping it through periods of drought.

Blue grass, fescues and other cool-season grasses should be fertilized in early fall and early spring. Fertilizing in the summer does not help the grass and it may stimulate crabgrass and other weeds.

IT IS BEST to apply the fertilizer by spreader to get a more even distribution. Figure on using from 3 to 4 pounds of fertilizer for each 100 square feet of lawn area, Hamrick advises.

Acid, sandy soils generally require light applications of lime every 2 or 3 years, and clay soils require heavier applications every 5 or 6 years. Lime can be applied at any time; late fall or winter are best, he says.

County Women At Farm Meet

Nineteen local farm women attended the southern Ohio regional Farm Bureau Women's Rally at Piketon last Thursday.

Highlighting the meeting were speakers Mrs. Litta Roberson, Farm Bureau women's activities director and Mrs. Alvin Stuber, Ohio Farm Bureau trustee and delegate to the recent triennial conference of the Associated Country Women of the World in Ceylon.

Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh led the group singing and Mrs. Herman Berger was accompanist, both from Pickaway County. Lewis Hamrick, Ohio Farm Bureau trustee from this district also attended the meeting.

Others attending from Pickaway County were: Mrs. Ralph May, Mrs. Hoyt Timmons, Mrs. Frank Graves, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Leora Sayre, Mrs. J. B. Stevenson, Mrs. Russell Yaple, Miss Ethel Brobst, all from Circleville, Mrs. Harold Fisher, Ashville, Mrs. H. O. Caldwell, Mrs. Lewis Hay and Mrs. Paul Peters from Harrison Township; Mrs. Louis E. Hill, Mrs. Mary Shannon, Mrs. Lewis McKinley and Mrs. Winfough from Darby Township.

Future Farmers of America in Pickaway County are looking forward to plans for 1958 on the basis of reports and discussions held at the organization's national convention in Kansas City last week.

Eight members of the Walnut FFA Chapter were among the 10,000 members who attended the national gathering. Hugh D. Coffman, vo-ag instructor at Walnut Twp. School, was in charge of the group.

The highlight of the convention for the Pickaway County group was the awarding of the American Farmer degree to 365 outstanding members. One of this number was William Winter, a Walnut FFA member. Winter, a 1954 graduate of Walnut Twp. School, was awarded the degree on the basis of his growing into farming through his vocational agriculture program. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winter of Route 1, Amanda, and is married to the former Elaine Quillen of the Walnut community.

Other sessions of the convention were devoted to the National FFA Public Speaking Contest, selection of the Star American Farmer, and a speech by former President, Harry Truman.

POINTS OF interest which the group visited en route were: Lincoln's Tomb at Springfield, Illinois; Mark Twain's home at Hannibal, Missouri; the Capital Building at Jefferson City, Missouri; and the Purina research farm near St. Louis.

In addition to Winter, other Walnut FFA boys making the trip were: Norman Bidwell, Paul Crumley, Marcus Dresbach, John Noecker, Jim Riley, Leroy Owens and David Thomas.

Pauper's Oaths Freeing Prisoners

DOVER, Del., Oct. 23 (AP)—Prisoners who can't pay their fines evidently have a one-way ticket out of jail here, until lawmakers patch the loophole.

More than 118 were released this week, according to Elwood H. Wilson, director of the Delaware penal system. He said still others would be freed after taking pauper's oaths.

A 1953 revision of the Delaware legal code provides that justices of the peace do not have authority to sentence prisoners to specific jail terms when they plead poverty and can't pay their fines. As a result, the State Supreme Court ruled last week that prisoners held in conflict with the law should be freed after taking the pauper's oath.

Mrs. Horace Luton Is President of New Forum

Minnesota Code Discussed

Circleville Forum was the name selected by the members of a newly organized Circleville woman's club at a luncheon meeting held on Tuesday at the Pickaway Country Club. Officers elected by the group were Mrs. Horace Luton, president; Mrs. Robert C. Anderson, vice president; Mrs. Robert Harrod, recording secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Vincent, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Hal Dickenson, treasurer.

The program for this meeting, a discussion of the Minnesota Code, was prepared by Mrs. Louis Wuest and Mrs. D. E. McDonald and presented by Mrs. Anderson. Mrs. Anderson's discussion dealt especially with the way in which the code, a plan of conduct for youth and their parents, has recently been adopted in St. Clair, Michigan.

"It gets its name," Mrs. Anderson explained, "from the state of Minnesota where it was originally adopted and where its use has become state wide."

The plan was launched in St. Clair by youth groups and their parents in the churches of the town and has been universally accepted by everyone in the town. The "Code" for St. Clair (four pages of mimeographed material) was distributed to everyone in the town.

The code begins with a "Basic rule" dealing with the fact that parents should know where their sons and daughters are when away from home, what they are doing and with whom they are spending their time and that young people should also know where and how to contact their parents when they are away from home.

The "Code" also dealt with respect of private property, obeying laws and participation in church, school and other activities.

The "Code" also suggested proper hours for parties and other activities, proper use of automobiles, proper respect for rights of others and how both adults and young people should conduct themselves and employers and employees.

A lively discussion followed the presentation of the "Code".

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Hal Dickenson, Mrs. Ray Friend and Mrs. Luton.

Hostesses for the November meeting will be Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Wuest and Mrs. Charles Sisco.

Pickaway Garden Club to Hear Dr. Jack Beal

Dr. Jack Beal, College of Pharmacy, Ohio State University, will be guest speaker Thursday evening when the Pickaway Garden Club meets in the Presbyterian Social Rooms at 8 p.m.

The topic of his address will be "Medicinal Plants in the Flower Garden."

Mrs. Russell Clark, program chairman, will distribute the program year books.

Members are asked to bring a mass arrangement of fall flowers and or fruits and vegetables. The theme of the class is "Overture," and is to be indicative of entire garden club year ahead.

St. Philip's Aux. Representatives Attend Meeting

The Columbus Region of The Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary of The Diocese of Southern Ohio met in Trinity Church, Newark, Tuesday.

Representatives from St. Philip's, Circleville, were: Mrs. J. E. Groom, Mrs. Andrew Thomas, Mrs. N. T. Weldon, Mrs. Leora Sayre; and Mrs. Robert Doherty.

Colored Hose Now in Fashion

By EANNE D'ARCY King Features Syndicate

Red, blue, green! They're fashion colors and you'll find them in stockings, too. That's the word from the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers—and they should know!

Conservative beige stockings are dull stuff these days. In high fashion circles, nylons will be seen in more shocking shades! After all, why should legs be out of color-focus with the rest of your costume?

So if you're wearing shocking pink or red (a big shade for the season ahead), team it up with stockings in pale or definite pink. If your dress is royal blue, blue plum, raspberry, claret or purple, look for nylons in grayed blue, berry blue, mauve, wine or plum.

It sounds shocking! It's not conventional! But once you get used to nylons in color you'll love 'em. We tried color nylons ourselves and, timidly, we must admit. But we loved the effect!

A pink pair turned out to be the perfect touch with a blue-and-pink print dress. On your legs, of course, the stocking shade fades a bit, so that the pink is just the shadow of a color.

Look, too, for new gray shades. Instead of the pale gray nylons of other years, you'll find an entire range of grays from light to dark, platinum through misty grays, to smoky, pewter and deep banker's gray. They make a fine alliance between legs and deep gray shoes, tie in neatly with the grays of wool dresses and suits.

It's a big gear for stockings. Black and off-black nylons are back again, too. They're dramatic with date-time dresses and do wonders to make legs look sleek and shapely.

Art League Members Hold "Hobby Night"

Hobby Night was held by the members of the Circleville Art League at their October meeting Monday. Each member was called upon to discuss or describe his hobby.

Flower arranging is Mrs. Pauline Adkins' profitable hobby. She has won many prizes with her arrangements, and won second and honorable mentions at the Ohio State Fair. Mrs. Adkins explained that there were three things needed for a good arrangement: color harmony, good design and originality.

The tools needed are different sizes of wire, molding clay, floral tape, scissors and of course beautiful flowers. Mrs. Adkins grows most of her flowers just for arrangements.

Miss Joan Carr mentioned that hiking and photography, including black and white and color were her hobbies; Miss Martha Reid, collecting earrings; Mrs. H. E. Montelius, color slides and photography; Roy Wood, taking color movies; Mrs. Gene Kuhns, ceramics; Mrs. Don Archer, making jewelry from sagebrush.

Mrs. W. W. Robinson's hobby is poetry. She gave ten suggestions by which to judge poetry. These are things to think of when you are reading poetry (they also relate to painting): Does poem say anything? Is poem condensed enough or too wordy? Are there too many adjectives or too many verbs? Does poem move toward climax? Does rhythm fit a sense? Are strong words accented? Is there an unusual word or the unusual use of an old word? Do thought and emotion create balance in the poem? Is the poem a unit drawn together by expectancy of return? Does the poem create a definite atmosphere?

Ruth E. Montelius mentioned that her special hobby the past two years has been the Circleville Junior Art League. She read the clippings of the juniors for the past two years showing what they had accomplished. She ended by announcing that their latest idea for the Pumpkin Show—The Pumpkin Worm for the Pumpkin Show parades, had won fifth prize.

Mrs. Kenneth Luna said that going to auctions and buying antiques were her hobby.

Mrs. Robert Hutzelman reported that textile painting was really her introduction to painting. Another hobby is collecting cups and saucers. The rest of the members said that painting was their one and only hobby.

Miss Joan Carr, the new art teacher in Circleville, and Donald Cooper, Mt. Sterling, were welcomed as new members.

Dec. 16 was decided upon as the date for the annual Christmas party and it was voted to make it a Beaux Arts party with all members wearing costumes.

The Nov. meeting will be election of officers. Mrs. H. E. Montelius, Mr. Oren Webb, and Mrs. Edwin Bach Jr. are the nominating committee.

Rev. Fred Ketner Honored At Luncheon

Mrs. Harry Betz, Reber Ave., invited the members of the Pickaway County Society for Crippled Children to a luncheon at her home Tuesday to honor the Rev. Fred Ketner.

Rev. Ketner served as president of the organization for two and a half years before being transferred to the Como Avenue Church in Columbus.

He was presented a gift of appreciation by the following members who attended the luncheon: Sheriff Charles Radcliff, Rev. Charles Reed, Mrs. H. Dale Rough, Mrs. C. O. Schweizer, Mrs. Robert Pickens and Mrs. Charles Walker.

Mrs. Betz was assisted by Mrs. Walker.

Personals

Mrs. Craig Leland has returned to her home in Laguna Beach, Calif., after a visit of two months with her aunt, Mrs. Mame Mowery, N. Washington St.

Master Sgt. Fred A. Buckner, U. S. Army, attached Ohio State University, and Miss Elder Conrad of Columbus visited their uncle and aunt, Ray and Anna Ankens, Sunday in Stoutsville.

Capt. H. Phil Connors of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Ray Ankens were visitors at the Veterans Administration, Chillicothe, Wednesday.

Michael Andrews of 215 E. Main St., has left for a short vacation in Detroit, Mich., where he plans to visit points of interest of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Campbell, Brownsburg, Ind., were Saturday guests of his father G. Guy Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, S. Court St.

AP Guesspert Sees Prediction Average Drop

Flu, Upsets Hurts His Rating, but He's Out With Another Forecast

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Oh, me. . . Oh, my. Which is worse, flu or football upsets? But nothing can make you feel worse than missing 21 of 44 college football decisions the week previous.

That's a measly .523 average compared with the season's take of .779. . . Oh, well. . .

This week's picks are: Oklahoma over Colorado: The Buffaloes always give Oklahoma their toughest league tussle, but not even the flu can stop the Sooners.

Texas A&M over Baylor: From September on, everyone knew this was going to be the title fracas in the Southwest Conference but the Twelfth Man (the Cadets' cheering section) gives the Aggies the edge.

Iowa over Northwestern: The Hawkeyes have the best defensive line in the Big Ten.

Duke over North Carolina State: Wray Carlton is the difference.

Auburn over Houston: If Auburn spends too much time remembering the results of Saturday's battle with George Tech, the Plainsmen could lose.

Notre Dame over Pittsburg: The Irish have had two weeks to recover from the excitement of beating Army. The Panther attack lacks scoring punch.

Michigan State over Illinois: Lightning doesn't strike twice in one season.

Army over Virginia: What do the Cadets care if the Virginia fullback is an honest-to-goodness Persian Prince?

Minnesota over Michigan: Possibly the day's most rugged contest.

UCLA over Stanford: How does anyone know what's going to happen in this mystery circuit?

Skippping over the others:

THURSDAY

South Carolina over Clemson.

FRIDAY

Miami over Kansas, Mississippi Southern over Chattanooga.

SATURDAY

EAST: Navy over Pennsylvania, Brown over Rhode Island, Lehigh over Columbia, Dartmouth over Harvard, Princeton over Cornell, Rutgers over Richmond, Syracuse over Penn State, Yale over Colgate, Holy Cross over Boston University.

MIDWEST: Ohio State over Wisconsin, Cincinnati over College of Pacific, Villanova over Indiana, Iowa State over Kansas State, Texas Christian over Marquette, Missouri over Nebraska, Purdue over Miami of Ohio.

SOUTH: The Citadel over Furman, Mississippi over Arkansas, Virginia Tech over Florida State, Kentucky over Georgia, Tennessee over Maryland, Georgia Tech over Tulane, Virginia Military over George Washington, North Carolina over Wake Forest, West Virginia over William & Mary, Florida over Louisiana State.

SOUTHWEST: Rice over Texas, Hardin Simmons over West Texas State.

FAR WEST: Arizona over Texas Tech, Utah over Wyoming, Denver over Brigham Young, Oregon State over Washington, Utah State over Colorado State, New Mexico over Montana, Oregon over California, San Jose over North Texas State, Southern California over Washington State, UCLA over Stanford.

Members from the Shawnee Gun Club taking part in the program were Blaire, Sayre, Museck and Shepard. Community winners were Russell Newhouse, Burnelle Newhouse, Lester Shupe, Lloyd Spung, A. W. Duncan, Tom Brannon and Art Wilkin.

The next shoot will be held Sunday at the Tarlton club.

Akron Harness Racer Wins $6,000 Event

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—Easy Adios withstood a belated stretch bid by Menace to win the $6,000 Laurelton Junior Free-for-All in 2:03 at Roosevelt Raceway Tuesday night. The 5-year-old son by Adios, owned by R. G. Yeager, Akron, Ohio, and driven by Earl Roush, rushed into the lead at the half on the outside.

LeBaron Tops Pro Football Passing Stars

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The offensive leaders of the National Football League with one-third of the 1957 season completed are little Eddie LeBaron of the Washington Redskins and Thomas Wilson of Los Angeles.

Statistics released today showed LeBaron topped the NFL passers while Wilson was the leading groundgainer.

LeBaron's 10.63 yard average gain was slightly under the 10.67 yard mark he had a week ago. The former College of the Pacific star has tried 59 passes and hit with 38 for 627 yards and six touchdowns. Only three of his passes have been intercepted.

Wilson, one of the NFL luminaries with no previous college experience, now has picked up 392 yards on 69 carries for a 5.7 average.

Clyde Connor, San Francisco, retained his No. 1 spot among the loop's pass receivers with 19 grabbed for 257 yards.

Jim Mutscheller, Baltimore Colts, is the league's top scorer with 42 points. George Blanda and William Gailmore, both of the Chicago Bears, are in second place with 30 points.

Dick Deschaine, Green Bay Packers, maintained his lead as the top punter with an average of 47.9 yards on 18 boots. Woody Lewis, Chicago Cardinals, stayed atop the list of punt receivers with a 10.4 yard return average.

Cap Coaches Hope Skinner Ready Saturday

Jack Landrum, Capital University football coach, is hopeful that former CHS griddler Don Skinner will be ready for full time action when Cap plays host to Denison at Bernlohr Field Saturday.

Skinner, suffering a leg injury, only saw three minutes of play against Akron Saturday, but that was enough for him to score seven points and give the Lutherans a well-earned 13-13 deadlock with the rugged Zippers.

The Circleville product, an end and team captain for the Lutherans, came off the bench to snare a touchdown pass and then kick the extra point which evened the score against Akron.

George Troutman, another Circleville griddler, is a mainstay for Cap's forward wall. The 260 pound footballer maneuvers at center and also has played fullback for the Purple Knights.

ACCORDING to Coach Landrum his squad suffered normal bumps and bruises in the Akron contest but added that the team has not been hard-hit by the flu bug. Landrum added that Denison probably will be his toughest opponent of the season.

Making a bid for the Ohio Conference championship the Capital outfit will be out to halt the power of Denison and hand the Big Red its first defeat since the grid rivalry started in 1926.

Laurelville Club Sponsors Dance

Members of the Laurelville Athletic Club will sponsor a round and square dance Saturday from 8:30 to 12 p. m. in the Laurelville gymnasium.

izational meeting at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds coliseum Sunday at 2 p. m.

Team managers from Circleville, Pickaway County and surrounding areas are invited to attend the meeting.

According to Marvin Spangler, league manager, it is hoped that about 12 teams will enter the circuit this year. Spangler said the league is expected to open around the first week in November.

Last year the Independent loop conducted a successful season here with several top teams providing some rugged competition. All games again will be played in the fairgrounds coliseum.

Spangler requested that all team heads be at the coliseum promptly at 2 p. m. The meeting will center around team entries, scheduling and other preliminary groundwork for a successful league.

Here Are More News Briefs From Midwest Grid Camps

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest Football Briefs:

Iowa — Hawkeye reserves held an intrasquad scrimmage and ran Northwestern plays while the first two teams engaged in a light workout. Tackle Alex Karras suffered an ankle sprain but is expected to be ready by Saturday.

Ohio State—Coach Woody Hayes said his Buckeyes will be in top physical shape for the Wisconsin battle. Hayes said he expects his team to beat Wisconsin.

Minnesota — Quarterback Dick Larson definitely will miss the Michigan game because of a pulled ankle tendon. Tackle Frank Youse is undergoing treatment for bronchitis, a sore throat and an infected tooth.

Michigan State — The Spartans counted minor injuries after their upset loss to Purdue. End Dave Kaiser has a bruised hip and center ter Dan Currie has a knee sprain. Illinois is Saturday's foe.

Michigan 8 fullback John Herrnstein will probably miss the battle for the "Little Brown Jug" because of an injured ankle. Other casualties in the Michigan camp are quarterback Jim Van Pelt, end Dave Bowers and halfback Mike Shatusky.

Wisconsin—Freshman ran with Ohio State plays as the Badgers went through a rugged workout. Injured guard Bill Gehler worked out and is expected to play against Ohio State.

Illinois — Halfbacks Bobby Mitchell and Dale Smith were returned to the first team as the Illini opened drills for Michigan State. Guard Bill Burrell, sidelined last week, returned to drills.

Purdue — Five Boilermakers were sidelined with minor injuries but all are expected to be ready for the Miami of Ohio game. Quarterback Bob Spoo will rest his hand injury suffered before the Michigan State game.

Northwestern—The Wildcats reported no serious injuries following their loss to Michigan. Linemen Gene Gossage and Chuck Jerasa, both sidelined last week, are expected to be ready for Iowa.

Indiana — The Hoosiers drilled for a short time then watched movies of their 56-0 loss to Ohio State and listened to scouting reports on Villanova. Wingback Don Brodie is lost for the season with a fractured ankle.

Notre Dame—Center Ed Sullivan and halfback Aubrey Lewis are nursing ankle injuries and are doubtful starters against Pitt Saturday. Guard Bob Gaydes is definitely out with an ankle injury.

Marquette — The Warriors will be at full strength for the first time this season when they meet Texas Christian. Coach Johnny Druze sent his charges through an unexpected contact scrimmage.

Houston loses Ohio Gridders from team

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The University of Houston football squad Tuesday lost its top ground gainer of the season, fullback Owen Mulholland of Steubenville, Ohio.

University officials said the 200-pound back dropped some courses and no longer has enough credits to retain eligibility for football.

Persian Prince Is Voted as 'Back of Week'

NEW YORK (AP) — For his all-around performance against Virginia Tech, James Abol Hassan Bakhtiar, an honest-to-gosh Persian prince who plays fullback for the University of Virginia, today was selected as "Back of the Week."

The 200-pound Virginia fullback, whose home is Abadan, Iran, equalled the Atlantic Coast Conference scoring record and missed tying the workhorse record by only three carries as he led the Cavaliers to a 38-7 surprise victory over VPI, the favorite.

Bakhtiar carried the ball 28 times and gained 153 yards. He scored Virginia's first 25 points and later added another conversion to tie the 26-point conference record.

Editor's Note — This is the second of three stories by Associated Press experts in foreign affairs, appraising the Mideast crisis and what it may bring. Today's writer, John M. Hightower, traces the background of U. S. policy in the area. Hightower has reported diplomatic news from Washington and many foreign capitals, following closely the decisions which set the stage for today's dilemmas in U. S. foreign policy.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — For years the Middle East has been torn by conflict. The United States never has succeeded in devising a policy for dealing decisively with it.

As a result the United States today faces greater dangers and deeper involvements in the power politics of that region than at any time in its history. It also faces the possibility of serious defeats there at the hands of Russia unless means can be found to block the spread of Soviet influence.

The United States has had two major objectives: to make peace between Israel and the Arab states and to protect the region against Soviet inroads.

Many of the best informed diplomats and officials consider the Israeli-Arab conflict to be the main source of trouble. The United States, Britain and France have tried many approaches to peace directly and through the United Nations. Their efforts have failed.

Other factors are the conflict between the newly independent peoples of the Middle East and the colonial powers of Western Europe, and the struggle for leadership among states within the Arab bloc.

If Russia could succeed in breaking the ties and influence of the United States and its allies, the Soviet gains would be tremendous. Russia would get authority over output from the world's richest concentration of oil reserves. It would control the Suez Canal and the airways between Europe and Asia. It would break the chain of American and allied bases which is the first line of defense against Soviet striking power.

U. S. commitments began to take firm shape in 1947 when President Truman proclaimed the policy of helping Greece and Turkey to resist Communist pressures. This became known as the "Truman Doctrine."

In 1952 Greece and Turkey became members of the North Atlantic Alliance, as Secretary of State Dulles sharply reminded Russia last week, that pact means an attack on Turkey would be considered an attack on the United States.

In November 1955 Britain, Turkey, Iran, Iraq and Pakistan formed the anti-Communist Baghdad Alliance. The United States within a short time began joining committees of the alliance—just short of full membership.

The most recent commitment came last March when President Eisenhower and Congress joined in proclaiming an intention to defend the Middle East against aggression by "international communism," with the use of force if that became necessary and if any country attacked asked for American help.

By these measures the U. S. government has tried to fill the vacuum left by the decline of British and French power in the area. At the same time it has sought to disassociate itself—in the eyes of the Arab countries especially—from identification with the former colonial rulers.

Mitzi Gaynor Back in Films

Actress Gets Role In 'South Pacific'

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Three years ago, Mitzi Gaynor was told by 20th Century-Fox that her services were no longer needed.

Now she's back on the lot with one of the prize roles of this or any other year.

She's playing Nellie Forbush, the pert nurse from Little Rock in "South Pacific." It's a role that many a movie queen would give anything to snag, but Mitzi won it in a walk. She was the only girl who tested for it.

And what a sweet victory it was! Now she's welcomed back to the studio where she got her start in movies.

"They let me go just before I started 'There's No Business Like Show Business,'" Mitzi recalled in her dressing room. "No explanation. No farewells. They just told me my option would not be picked up."

"But I think it worked out for the best. I've been pretty lucky on the outside. Now, when I come back to the studio, they accept me as I am."

"It's different when you stay at the studio where you started out, especially if you began when you were young. Everybody at the studio thinks of you as 'Our Little Mitzi.' They can't understand that you have grown up."

Mitzi continued to grow in stature when she went out on her own. Picking her roles carefully, she did pictures with Bing Crosby, Donald O'Connor and George Gobel. Now she has two hits in the theaters — "The Joker Is Wild" and "Les Girls."

Robin Redbreast Finds Berries Bringing Binge

CHICAGO (AP)—Some of the robins stopping off at Brookfield Zoo are on a binge, says Director Robert Dean, but he is going to do nothing about it. Dean said one robin, after eating fermented berries, tried to pick a fight with its image in a sidewalk puddle. Some of the robins, he added, are just "sputtering" instead of singing.

Ohio Ballot Proposal Seeks To Prevent 'Loss' of Vote

Editor's Note: Following is the last of a series of three articles detailing constitutional amendment proposals which will be on Ohio's November ballot.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Every four years thousands of new Ohio residents lose their right to vote for President and vice president.

That loss results from a requirement in the Ohio Constitution that otherwise qualified residents must live in Ohio at least a year before they can vote in elections.

Voters will decide in the Nov. 5 election whether the residence barrier should be lifted to permit a vote only for presidential electors by Ohio residents of less than one year. The proposal will appear on ballot as Amendment No. 2.

The question is one of three proposed changes in the state constitution to appear on November election ballots for final determination by voters. Majority approval of those voting on the questions is necessary for adoption.

Approval of the constitutional amendment would make it necessary for the 1959 Legislature to prescribe residence requirements for presidential election voting by new arrivals in rapidly growing Ohio.

Ohio requires its voters to live in the state a full year and in their county and precinct at least 40 days before they can ballot in elections.

Similar restrictions in other states often prevent voters who move in an election year from marking ballots in either their home or adopted states.

Election officials estimate that six million United States citizens lose their right to vote for President by moving in the year when that office is filled.

Article V Section 1 of the Ohio constitution reads:

"Every citizen of the United States, of the age of 21 years, who shall have been a resident of the state one year next preceding the election, and of the county, township or ward, in which he resides, such time as may be provided by law, shall have the qualifications of an elector, and be entitled to vote at all elections."

The proposed amendment up for decision by voters next months would add:

States being 21 years of age who is not entitled to vote at all elections shall be entitled to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States if he shall have been a resident of the state, county, township or ward in which he desires to vote such time as may be provided by law, provided that he is not entitled to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States in any other state."

State Sen. Ed Witmer (D-Stark) sponsored the amendment resolution adopted unanimously by the Legislature to place the question before voters.

The action carried out a recommendation by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, Ohio's chief elections official. Brown's recommendation carried the endorsement of the Assn. of Secretaries of State made previously at their national convention.

Veteran Mayor Quits

BEREA, Ky. (AP)—John L. Gay believes 47 years is long enough for him to serve as mayor of Berea. So, at the age of 92, he has announced he won't seek reelection in the November election.

Felon's Diagnosis Proved as Hoax

DETROIT (AP)—Convict Richard Sargeson's self-diagnosis of his leg ailment proved faulty. He said it was paralyzed and he couldn't walk.

Sargeson, 26, of Cornwall, Ont., was brought under guard from the Detroit House of Corrections to Receiving Hospital for an examination.

Left unguarded for a moment, he quickly slipped off his handcuffs and fled.

He was serving six months for assault.

10-Month-Old Boy Dies In Home Water Tub

COLUMBUS (AP)—David G. Miller, 10-month-old son of Mrs. Jane Miller of nearby Mifflin Twp., fell into a tub of water and drowned Tuesday night shortly after his mother stepped out of the kitchen, police reported. The death was ruled accidental by the Franklin County coroner's office.

Suspension of Judge Asked by Bar Group

COLUMBUS (AP) — Suspension of Youngstown Municipal Judge made the recommendation to the high court at the request of the Frank R. Franko as a practicing attorney has been recommended by the Ohio Supreme Court.

The state Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline made the recommendation to the high court at the request of the Mahoning County Bar Assn. The association accused Franko of misusing his position as a judge in his unsuccessful campaign for county prosecutor last year.

YOUR NEXT PLYMOUTH JUST TAMED THE TOUGHEST TEST TRACK ON EARTH!

That's the "track" scrawled across the map: 58,000 miles... more than twice around the world. Six years of driving crammed into 58 days by a brand-new 1958 Plymouth. Read below, see how it affects your future.

When you step into an auto showroom and plunk down hard-earned cash for a new car, you've got a right to more than just surface beauty. You've got a right to a car that's going to stand up under the punishment of day in, day out driving. A car that can go on delivering new-car comfort and economy season after season.

We designed the 1958 Plymouth to do just that. But we didn't settle for endurance in theory. We wanted proof.

See that route outlined above? It spells out "Plymouth '58" across 37 states. We ran a new Plymouth—one of the first stock production models to roll off the lines—across the route three times to roll up 58,000 miles in just 58 days. That's 1000 miles a day!

Here are just a few of the results. And even experienced automotive editors who were there when the Plymouth braked to the final halt were impressed by the results of this extraordinary test.

- Total miles traveled: 58,000
- Total days elapsed: 58
- Number of brake applications: 37,551
- Number of wheel revolutions: 47,732,000
- Number of engine tune-ups: 6

And for all its punishment, the test Plymouth still rode, handled and looked like new. The figures above are just a few of the hundreds collected during this trip. Your Plymouth dealer will be glad to furnish you with lots more details.

You'll be able to see and drive this amazing new Plymouth in a very few days. Wait for it. It's going to show you how much you can expect in a low-price car. And you can expect it only in Plymouth for '58!
